

With its inviting atmosphere and rich history, The Willcox is the ideal setting for social events, including wedding receptions, holiday parties, cocktail receptions, meetings and corporate retreats. Unique privileges, luxurious amenities and quality cuisine create a setting appropriate for business and social gatherings.

The Willcox looks forward to being your home away from home. Our friendly staff is available to make your event experience as comfortable as possible. After all, we are the new definition of hospitality, with several adjectives sprinkled in: historic, chic, elegant, glamorous and relaxing — flattering descriptions that landed us on the Top 50 Small Hotels in America list as voted by the readers of Condé Nast Traveler.[□]

But you don't have to always come to us. We'll come to you — in our Food Truck, is a restaurant on wheels that blends retro charm with a heaping helping of hip and trendy culinary service. It lets us bring The Willcox experience to you, whether that's on a mountain, playing polo, at the ballpark, in a parking lot or at a private party. If you haven't discovered our flip side, you should.
